ARTICLE 12

NON-TENURE TRACK FACULTY (NTTF) REVIEW AND PROMOTION

Section 1. Reviews for Career NTTF will include (1) regular reviews associated with contract renewal and (2) promotion reviews. If a bargaining unit faculty member seeks promotion in a year when a contract review is due, only a single review must be completed. The decision on whether to promote and the decision on whether to renew, however, must be made independently.

Section 2. Policies and Procedures. The faculty in each department or unit that employs NTTF will develop written procedures and criteria for NTTF, which must comport with the general guidelines in Section 4 of this Article. Each department’s or unit’s promotion process will include a promotion review committee which should include tenure-track and tenured faculty and, where possible, NTTF at or above the rank sought by the candidate. Each policy will include a process for reviewing the performance of any adjuncts employed by the department or unit. Each policy will also address whether external reviewers will be included in the review and promotion process and how external reviews will be conducted. If reviewers external to the unit or university are included, they should be reviewers who can present a knowledgeable and objective evaluation of the candidate and his or her qualifications. External reviewers must be asked to base their evaluation and judgment on the criteria in use by the academic department or program.

The faculty will develop written procedures and criteria for NTTF review and promotion after considering any input provided by the dean or unit head, or the Provost or designee. The faculty will submit their recommended procedures and criteria to the appropriate dean, unit head, or designee for review. The dean, unit head, or designee will discuss any revisions he or she makes with the faculty before submitting recommended procedures and criteria to the Academic Affairs or the Vice President for Research, Innovation and Graduate Studies, as appropriate, who will have final authority to establish the procedures and criteria for each unit. If the dean, unit head, or Provost or designee materially alters faculty-recommended procedures or criteria, he or she will provide a written explanation for the change(s) to the faculty in the department or unit. The dean, unit head, Provost, or designee may initiate changes to established procedures or criteria by informing the appropriate faculty of the change being considered, thereby initiating the process described in this Section.

The procedures and criteria for review and promotion must be made available to bargaining unit faculty members upon request, and published on the Academic Affairs or Research and Innovation website and in the department or unit. If procedures or criteria change during the course of an NTTF bargaining unit member’s employment, the bargaining unit faculty member may elect between current criteria in effect during the six years prior to the initiation of a given review or promotion process.

Reviews Associated with Contract Renewal for Career NTTF

Section 3. Sections 3 through 5 apply to contract reviews for Career NTTF. Reviews for Career NTTF are for the purpose of determining if the NTTF member is meeting the standard of excellence appropriate to a major research university. They should be designed to help the NTTF bargaining unit members grow as scholars, researchers and educators, identify areas of strength, and identify areas that need improvement.

Section 4. While the details and structure of reviews are the responsibility of the University Administration, reviews must follow these general guidelines:

1. Career NTTF must be reviewed in each contract period prior to consideration for renewal or once every three academic or fiscal years of employment, whichever is sooner. The review will consider the Career NTTF bargaining unit faculty member’s performance since the last review.

2. For instructional Career NTTF, student course evaluations will be offered for all courses with five or more students. The evaluation of teaching will include a review of evaluations for each course taught. Career NTTF bargaining unit members are expected to undergo at least one peer review of teaching per contract period. The department or unit will identify the standards to be applied to these reviews and will establish a time frame for notification to the Career NTTF bargaining unit member before a peer review is conducted.

3. Career NTTF in research appointments will be reviewed by established procedures to assess the quality of work performed and the outcomes of their contributions to the research program.

4. Librarians will be reviewed for demonstrated achievement in their professional roles in the Library.

5. To the extent applicable, the evaluation of scholarship, research and creative activity, where applicable, will include an assessment of work quality, impact on the field nationally and internationally, and overall contribution to the discipline or program.

6. The review process will include an opportunity for the Career NTTF bargaining unit faculty member to discuss his or her efforts and performance with an appropriate supervisor at least once during each contract period.

7. As part of each contract review, an Career NTTF will have an opportunity to submit a personal statement containing information relevant to his or her performance of assigned duties and responsibilities.
8. In evaluating the performance of required professional development activities, the reviewer will consider the availability of professional development funds, opportunities for professional development, and the Career NTTF bargaining unit faculty member’s efforts to secure funding.

9. A Career NTTF bargaining unit faculty member will be evaluated only by the criteria approved and made available to the faculty member.

Section 5. An NTTF bargaining unit member may hold appointments in more than one unit at the university. In such a case, the relevant vice presidents, deans, directors or designees will notify the NTTF in writing at the time multiple appointments are made which unit will oversee the review process and the criteria for promotion, if applicable.

Promotion Reviews for Career NTTF

Section 6. Eligibility for Promotion. Career NTTF will be eligible for promotion after accumulating 18 consecutive terms of six years of service at an average of .53 FTE or greater, accrued at no greater than three terms per academic year. This six year period is stepped during an approved, uncompensated break in service of up to two continuous academic or fiscal years.
Thus, for example, a NTTF bargaining unit faculty member who accumulates three consecutive academic years of service and then has an uncompensated break in service of one academic year but resumes his or her appointment immediately after the break in service, is eligible for promotion after accumulating three additional consecutive academic years of service. A year during which a NTTF bargaining unit member is on approved leave for more than the equivalent of one academic term does not count as a year of employment for promotion purposes.

NTTF bargaining unit members should discuss the timing of leave and its relation to the promotion decision with the department or unit head, who may also consult with the dean and the Provost to ensure that there is appropriate and clear written documentation of leave agreements.

Section 7. “Up or Out.” For all Career NTTF bargaining unit members other than librarians promotion is elective and does not involve an “up or out” decision. Career NTTF who do not wish to be considered for promotion may continue employment at their current rank as long as eligible to do so under Article 9, Contracts. Librarians must undergo review for promotion to associate librarian at the first time they become eligible. If promotion is denied, the candidate will receive a one year terminal appointment. Promotion from associate librarian to senior librarian is elective.

Section 8. Accelerated Review. An accelerated promotion review can occur in particularly meritorious cases as determined by the Provost or designee in consultation with the appropriate dean, department or unit head, and affected bargaining unit faculty member.
Section 9. Credit for Prior Service. When credit for prior service is agreed upon, the terms of hire will state the number of years of credit granted and the earliest date for promotion eligibility. Teaching, scholarship, research, and creative activity completed by the bargaining unit faculty member during the period of prior service will receive full consideration during the promotion process if the bargaining unit member elects the earliest date for promotion review. Should a bargaining unit member who received credit for prior service at the time of hire choose to delay the review until completing the required six years at the University, teaching, scholarship, research, and creative activity completed prior to arrival at the University will be of secondary consideration during the promotion process. Should the bargaining unit faculty member choose to use some, but not all of the credit for prior service, the focus of the review of teaching, scholarship, research and creative activity will adjust appropriately so that, for example, four years at the University would mean that at most two years of prior service will receive full consideration.

Section 10. Multiple or Joint Appointments. For NTTF bargaining unit members holding multiple or joint appointments, a memorandum will be completed at the time of hire or assignment specifying expectations for promotion review and identifying how the promotion process will be handled among the units. Such memorandum is not valid unless approved in writing by the bargaining unit faculty member and the Provost or designee.

Section 11. Initiating the Promotion Process. Candidates wishing to be considered for promotion should notify the appropriate department or unit head in the year prior to the year when promotion is sought, and must provide the following:

- Curriculum vitae: A comprehensive and current curriculum vitae that includes the faculty member’s current research, scholarly and creative activities and accomplishments, including publications, appointments, presentations, and similar activities and accomplishments.

- Personal statement: A 3-6 page personal statement developed by the bargaining unit faculty member evaluating his or her performance measured against the applicable criteria for promotion. The personal statement should expressly address the subjects of teaching; scholarship, research and creative activity; and service contributions to the academic department, center or institute, school or college, university, profession, and the community. The statement should also include discussion of contributions to institutional equity and inclusion.

- Supervisors’ letters of evaluation (e.g., department heads for instructors, research mentor for research assistants, etc.)

- Teaching portfolio (if applicable): Representative examples of course syllabi or equivalent descriptions of course content and instructional expectations for courses taught by the bargaining unit faculty member, examples of student work and exams, and similar material.

- Scholarship portfolio (if applicable): A comprehensive portfolio of scholarship, research and creative activity; and appropriate evidence of national or international recognition or impact.

- Service portfolio (if applicable): Evidence of the bargaining unit faculty member’s service contributions to his or her academic department, center or institute, school or college, university, profession and the community, such as op ed pieces, white papers authored or co-authored by the faculty member, commendations, awards, letters of appreciation. The portfolio may also include a short narrative elaborating on the faculty member’s unique service experiences or obligations.

- Professional activities portfolio (if applicable): A comprehensive portfolio of professional or consulting activities related to his or her discipline.

- External reviewers (If applicable): A list of qualified outside reviewers provided by the bargaining unit faculty member.

Section 12. Waiver of Access to Materials. Bargaining unit members may choose to waive in advance in writing their access to any or all of the evaluative materials (see Article 19, Personnel Records). Such waivers, however, shall not preclude the use of redacted versions of these documents in a denial review process. The redacted versions are intended to protect the identity of the reviewer. If redactions are insufficient to do so, the University may prepare a suitable summary. A waiver will be included in the promotion file.

Section 13. Notice of Meetings. A bargaining unit faculty member will receive at least three days’ notice of any meeting or hearing which the member is invited or required to attend, with a dean or the Provost or designee regarding recommendations or decisions on promotion. The bargaining unit faculty member may have a colleague or Union representative present at the meeting as an observer.

Section 14. Evaluation file. The promotion review file should generally include the following information:

- Statement of duties and responsibilities
- Curriculum vitae
- Conditions of appointment
- Criteria for promotion
- Personal statement
- Supervisors’ letters of evaluation
- Professional activities portfolio (if applicable)
- Teaching portfolio (if applicable)
- Scholarship portfolio (if applicable)
- Service portfolio (if applicable)
- External reviews (if applicable)
- Department or unit committee recommendation
- Department, unit, center or institute head’s recommendation (if applicable)
- Vice president’s, dean’s or director’s recommendation
- Waiver of access to materials (if applicable)

Section 15. Review by Department or Unit. Following the department’s or unit’s review and evaluation of the promotion file, the department or unit head will prepare a report on the merits of the promotion case. The report will include the department or unit-level promotion committee report and recommendation and a voting summary, and the department or unit head’s own independent recommendation. The file will then be sent to the appropriate vice president, dean or director for review.

Section 16. Review by Vice President, Dean or Director. The vice president, dean, or director, as appropriate will review the file, and may consult with appropriate persons and may ask for and document additional non-confidential information. Once the vice president, dean, or director deems the file complete, he or she will prepare a separate report and recommendation. The vice president, dean, or director will share his or her report and recommendation with the candidate and allow him or her 10 days from the date of receipt of the report to provide responsive material or information, which shall be included in the evaluation file. The vice president, dean, or director then will submit the complete evaluation file to the Provost or designee.

Section 17. Review by the Provost or Designee. The Provost or designee will review the file, with input from Academic Affairs and the Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation, as appropriate, and decide whether to grant or deny promotion. The candidate will be notified of the decision in writing.

Section 18. Assumption of New Rank. Successful candidates for promotion will assume their new rank beginning with the next academic or fiscal year or the nearest next term of employment should their contract not begin with fall term.

Section 19. Reapplication for Promotion. An unsuccessful candidate for promotion may continue employment at his or her current rank as long as eligible to do so under this Agreement NTF bargaining unit members who are denied promotion may reapply for promotion after having been employed by the university for an additional nine consecutive terms three years at an average of .33 FTE or greater, accrued at no greater than three terms per academic year.

Section 20. Appeal of Promotion Denial. Faculty who are denied promotion may appeal the decision through the procedures in Article 14, Tenure and Promotion Denial Appeal.
Section 21. Withdrawal of Application. A candidate may withdraw an application for promotion in writing to the Provost and the dean at any time before the Provost’s decision.
