UNIVERSITY COUNTER-PROPOSAL
9-18-13

Article 25

Termination without Cause for Financial Circumstances, Program Elimination or Reduction of Organization

Section 1. Termination without Cause. General. A termination of a bargaining unit faculty member without cause under this Article may occur as a result of financial exigency of eliminations or reductions of programs for financial reasons or for educational reasons as defined in this Article. The employment of a bargaining unit faculty member will not be terminated due to financial exigency during the term of this Agreement.

Section 2. Notice to Union. The University will provide the Union with reasonable notice that the reduction or elimination of a program is under consideration.

The University will give the Union at least 30 days’ notice prior to the effective date of a termination under this Article. The notice will include an explanation of the reason for the termination and the bargaining unit faculty members to be terminated. Upon the request of either party, the Union and the University will meet and discuss the specifics of the proposed terminations.

Section 3. Considerations for Termination. The University will determine which bargaining unit faculty members will be terminated based on the following considerations:

(a) The University will retain bargaining unit faculty members who have the best skills and abilities to accomplish future work. In making such judgment, the University may consider all appropriate factors, including but not limited to: capacity to meet the needs of the University in the future; performance evaluation history; academic training; professional reputation; teaching effectiveness, research record or quality of scholarly or creative activity; and service to the profession, the University and the community.

(b) In identifying bargaining unit members for termination, the University will consider its commitment to maintain diversity and its legal obligations regarding affirmative action.

The provisions of this Article do not apply to bargaining unit faculty members who have received notice of non-reappointment. Nothing in this Article affects the terms and conditions of employment of bargaining unit faculty members (a) on a visiting appointment at the University, (b) whose positions are funding contingent, or (c) who are appointed for less than one academic year.

Financial Exigency and Reductions or Eliminations for Financial Reasons

Section 4. Termination Resulting from Program Elimination or Reduction for Financial Reasons. A bargaining unit faculty member's employment may be terminated upon the determination by the president, pursuant to University procedures providing for faculty or other appropriate input, that a program elimination or reduction is consistent with the University's goals and needs.

Section 5. Termination Resulting from Program Elimination or Reduction for Academic Reasons. A bargaining unit faculty member's employment may be terminated upon the determination by the president that an academic need for a discontinuance or reduction of a program or department exists.

This determination must be made pursuant to university procedures providing for faculty and other appropriate input and be based on educational considerations that reflect long-range judgments about the academic mission of the university. Legitimate academic considerations allowing termination do not include cyclical or temporary variations in enrollment.

Section 6. Grievances. The determination that program reductions or eliminations should be made is not grievable. Whether the determination is a "but for" cause of a personnel action or whether the procedural requirements set forth in this Article were followed is grievable.

Section 74. Transfer to a Suitable Position. Before terminating a tenure-track or career NTTF bargaining unit faculty member pursuant to a determination made under this Article Sections 1 or 2, the University will make a reasonable, good faith effort to place the bargaining unit faculty member concerned in another suitable position of the same classification and rank within the university. A bargaining unit faculty member's refusal of such offer of reassignment will not affect his or her reemployment rights under this Article.

Section 85. Notice of Termination. Bargaining unit faculty members should be informed of a termination under this Article as soon as practicable. Unless the determination made under sections 1 or 2 requires otherwise, tenured bargaining unit faculty members will be provided at least one year's notice; and tenure-track and career NTTF bargaining unit faculty members shall be given advance notice of at least 180 days or the duration remaining of their appointment, whichever is shorter. Bargaining unit faculty members scheduled for termination will receive written notice to their university email address or, if the faculty member does not have a university email address, by regular mail to their last address recorded in the Banner system. The notice will include the effective date of termination; the reason for the termination; and a statement of recall rights.

Section 96. New Appointments. If a tenure-track bargaining unit faculty member’s appointment is terminated under sections 1 or 2 of this Article, the University will not at the same time make any new faculty appointments in that unit, except where a serious distortion in the academic program would otherwise result. It is the bargaining unit faculty member’s responsibility to keep the university advised of his or her current email address for receipt of such offers. If a bargaining unit faculty member refuses an offer of reemployment under this Section, his or her right to reemployment is extinguished.

Section 97. Reemployment. If a tenured bargaining unit faculty member’s appointment is terminated under this sections 1 or 2, the work of place of the faculty member concerned will not be filled by a replacement within a period of three years, unless the released faculty member has been offered reinstatement and at least thirty days in which to accept or decline it. It is the bargaining unit faculty member’s responsibility to keep the university advised of his or her current email address for receipt of such offers. If a bargaining unit faculty member refuses an offer of reemployment under this Section, his or her right to reemployment is extinguished.